ITA Airways resumes flights between Tel Aviv and Rome starting February 1

Rome, January 20th, 2025 – ITA Airways announces that starting February 1, connections between Tel Aviv Ben Gurion and Rome Fiumicino will be gradually resumed, initially with one daily frequency and, from February 16, with an additional nighttime flight, subject to the evolution of the geopolitical scenario.

Flights will operate according to the following schedule:

- For the daytime flight, departure from Tel Aviv Ben Gurion at 2:30 p.m. (local time) with arrival at Rome Fiumicino at 5:15 p.m. (local time); for the nighttime flight, departure from Tel Aviv Ben Gurion at 5:15 a.m. (local time) with arrival at Rome Fiumicino at 8:05 a.m. (local time).
- For the daytime flight, departure from Rome Fiumicino at 9:10 a.m. (local time) and arrival at Tel Aviv Ben Gurion Airport at 1:30 p.m. (local time); for the nighttime flight, departure from Rome Fiumicino at 10:50 p.m. (local time) and arrival at Tel Aviv Ben Gurion Airport at 3:10 a.m. (local time) the following day.

This flight schedule offers convenient connections from Israel to all ITA Airways intercontinental destinations via the Rome Fiumicino hub.

The restart of flights between Tel Aviv and Rome was also possible thanks to cooperation with Italian and Israeli authorities and it is strategically important for ITA Airways as it strengthens the commercial, social and cultural relations between the two markets.

All ITA Airways flights can be purchased on the website ita-airways.com, through the Company's Customer Information Assistance Office, travel agencies, and airport ticket offices.
