

ITA Airways and Air Europa Sign a Codeshare Partnership Increased connectivity and travel options for customers of both airlines between Spain and Italy

Rome 8 November 2021 - ITA Airways and Air Europa have signed a broad codeshare agreement connecting the networks of the two airlines. Thanks to this commercial partnership, which starts today 8th November 2021, ITA Airways will increment its operations and commercial offer on Spain and Canary and Balearic Islands.

Customers will have more options and better flight schedules when travelling through the two airlines' hubs in Rome and Madrid. Following this agreement, ITA Airways' and Air Europa's customers can now fly seamlessly to their desired destination with a single 'unique' ticket, checking-in at the airport of departure, and collecting their checked-through baggage at the end of their trip in the arrival airport. ITA Airways will apply its 'AZ' code on services operated by Air Europa between Italy and Spain. Similarly, Air Europa will code share AZ flights between Barcelona, Madrid and Rome, connecting Italian domestic services beyond Rome Fiumicino Airport and selected connecting international services. The new codeshare flights are now available for sale through the airlines' respective websites (itaspaspa.com and aireuropa.com), reservation systems and in travel agencies.

" We are pleased to start this commercial agreement with Air Europa which is a very important partner for ITA Airways in Spain a key market for us"- said Emiliana Limosani Chief Commercial Officer of ITA Airways - "Our Company is going ahead with its strategy to develop commercial agreements with major international airlines, with the aim to provide its customers with an increasingly larger number of destinations, routes and frequencies especially in those markets which present great growth opportunities for the airline" - added the manager.

Imanol Pérez, Air Europa's commercial director, was very satisfied with the agreement "which allows us to offer our passengers more flight options and more destinations, and to do so with the added convenience of traveling with a single ticket. Our alliance with ITA Airways allows us to maximize opportunities, grow in this market and offer our passengers the possibility of continuing their journey to more than ten Italian cities. This alliance will undoubtedly bring benefits for all parties. For more details or reservations visit itaspaspa.com and aireuropa.com or contact your local travel agent.

-ends- PRESS RELEASE